Community Advisory Committee Gives the Go Ahead

The Quonset Community Advisory Committee voted last night to recommend that the Quonset Development Corporation proceed with the Gateway Project. Citing the project's projected creation of 750 construction jobs and 1,000 new permanent, the group voted unanimously to approve the project. The CAC also noted that the $120 million Gateway is expected to create $1 million in tax revenue for North Kingstown and an additional $9 million for the state.
