The Quonset Hut

Practical and Portable- A Rhode Island Native!

Admiral Ben Moreell, Chief of the Navy yards in the 1940's, was given the task of creating a prefabricated, portable, shippable and easily assembled form of housing to be used by the United States Military. In 1941 he engaged the services of the George A. Fuller Company to do just that. The Fuller Company was given 60 days to design, manufacture and deliver the first order. The result was the Quonset Hut, so named because the production of these crucial military housing units took place right here in Quonset.
